

With so many having problems with stolen identities... I am concerned that there is nothing in place that considers our vulnerability when using deaf relay when having to disclose all our "Privacy Protection" information. I realize that the operators are under a code... but I think MORE needs to be done to address this issue.